GREAT FUN IN A GREAT CITY

Welcome to CHESTER

It's one of Britain's finest heritage cities with an action-packed history and great treasures from the past.

2000 years ago, the Roman Empire built Fortress Deva here to suppress fierce Welsh tribes across the border, and stayed for over 300 years.

They established the pattern of the city's streets, built the original City Walls and created the largest Amphitheatre ever uncovered in Britain where 7000 spectators watched spectacular events including circuses and gladiatorial combat.

Today, you can follow in the footsteps of Viking raiders, discover an Anglo-Saxon township ruled over by warrior queen, Aethelflaeda - the daughter of Alfred the Great and explore Chester Castle, built by the Norman invaders under the orders of Hugh Lupus, a nephew of William the Conqueror who also commissioned the creation of the 1000 year old Cathedral.

In the Middle Ages, Chester was the largest port in North West England and welcomed sailing ships from across the world until the River Dee silted up and became unnavigable.

Chester has always been a city built on trade and commerce and 700 years ago its merchants developed the city's unique heritage - the world-famous 'Rows', the two-tier galleries of fascinating shops with their distinctive black and white, half-timbered style.

The local economy flourished and prospered until the outbreak of the English Civil War when the city supported King Charles I in his battle with the forces of Oliver Cromwell for control of the State.

The nearby Battle of Rowton Moor in 1645 sealed the King's fate: the Royalist city of Chester was under siege for 2 years by Parliamentary armies and their formidable cannons until starvation and disease forced the citizens to surrender.

Chester has always shown resilience in the face of adversity and recovered to become once again a major centre for business, its success reflected in the splendour of buildings constructed in the Georgian and Victorian eras.

Today, it's a bustling city renowned for its great shops, restaurants and nightlife surrounded by architectural gems from the past 2000 years just waiting to be discovered.

Explore and enjoy!

Must-See Heritage

The 2000 year old city features a host of heritage attractions.

These include the most complete City Walls in Britain built by the Roman Empire, extended and strengthened by an Anglo-Saxon princess to keep the Vikings at bay; fortified by Norman invaders; bombarded by Cromwell's cannons, and developed by the Victorians into a pleasant 2 mile walkway that visitors can enjoy today.

Here you can also enjoy a visit to the oldest racecourse in the country, stand in the largest Roman Amphitheatre ever uncovered in Britain, or explore the retail delights of the 700 year old Rows two-tier shopping galleries, which are unique to Chester.

In the heart of the City is the 1000 year old Cathedral built by Norman invaders on the site of a Roman temple and changed across the centuries by different architectural styles.

Its many highlights include the finest mediaeval carvings in Europe in the quire and misericords, and the Refectory Café (where monks used to eat in silence and listen to Bible readings).

Equally stunning is the iconic Eastgate Clock built to celebrate Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee in 1897 and one of the most photographed timepieces in the world.

Nearby, is the City's original Cathedral - St John's Church built by the armies of William the Conqueror on the site of the earlier Anglo-Saxon building. Step inside and marvel at the massive Norman pillars and stand in the Nave that's said to display the finest example in Europe of the transition from the Romanesque to the Gothic architectural style.
